Tulane (8-5)	0	6	20	10	-	36

HONOLULU – The University of Hawai'i won the pre-game entertainment contest with a savvy Polynesian dance routine, but fell short against the Green Wave that tore into Honolulu to defeat the Warriors, 36-28, in the ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl Dec. 25 at Aloha Stadium.

Tulane gained 384 total yards and sacked Warrior quarterbacks eight times to win the program's fourth bowl game. But it was the Tulane special teams that sparked a 30-point second half to overcome a 14-6 halftime deficit.

Hawai'i took its first drive of the game 64-yards on seven plays capped by a one-yard run by Thero Mitchell to take a 7-0 lead and struck again when senior reserve running back Josh Galeai ran around the left side for a two-yard touchdown to put the Warriors up, 14-0. The Green Wave settled for two field goals, 22- and 37-yards respectively by Seth Marler to get on the board before the end of the first half.

Tulane came out of the locker room like a team on a mission behind big returns by Lynaris Elpheage, who cut the lead to two with a 60-yard punt return for a touchdown early in the third quarter. Elpheage set-up Tulane's go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return. Six plays later, Tulane quarterback J.P. Losman took it in from one yard out to give Tulane its first lead of the game, 20-14, with 6:17 left in the third quarter.

Tulane added to the lead after UH quarterback Shawn Withy-Allen fumbled in UH territory. One play later, Mewelde Moore rumbled 25 yards for a touchdown and Tulane had a 26-14 lead.

Hawai'i got the ball back just before the end of the third quarter after blocking a field goal attempt and turned it into a touchdown. Withy-Allen, facing fourth-and-one, tossed a 57-yard strike to Justin Colbert who turned and dashed untouched to the "house" to bring the Warriors within five at 26-21.

Tulane answered with a 10-play, 80-yard drive that took 4:32 off the fourth quarter clock. Withy-Allen hit Colbert on a crossing pattern for a 31-yard score to put the Warriors within reach, but a safety by the Green Wave ended all hopes of a second bowl victory for Warrior Head Coach June Jones.

HONOLULU – An all-world performance by quarterback Timmy Chang, a defense that came up with timely big plays and three overtimes resulted in a 54-48 Hawai'i win over Houston in front of 29,005 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl Christmas Day at Aloha Stadium.

Chang came off the bench to throw for 475 yards and five touchdowns on 26-of-42 passing, and Kelvin Millhouse snagged two interceptions, one that led to the go-ahead touchdown, to help Hawai'i win its second bowl game in three tries under head coach June Jones.

Chang completed passes to eight different receivers, most notably to senior Jeremiah Cockheran who finished with five catches for a game-high 162 yards, and true freshman Jason Rivers, who had a career night with seven catches for 143 yards and three TDs.

Houston jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead when quarterback Kevin Kolb drove the Cougars 73-yards on eight plays capped by a 34-yard touchdown pass to Chad McCullar. Less than three minutes later, a 60-yard punt return by McCullar led to a 21-yard field goal by Dustin Bell. Kolb finished 19-of-34 for 332 yards and two TDs.

Hawai'i managed a 19-yard field goal by Nolan Miranda and Chang needed one play to tie it up. Chang, who came off the bench for starter Jason Whieldon on UH's third possession, found Clifton Herbert wide open across the middle for a 48-yard touchdown strike to tie the game at 10.

Houston took a 20-13 lead at the break, but the Warrior defense and Chang came out of the locker room ready to play. The defense forced two punts and two interceptions, while Chang connected on 8-of-12 for 191 yards and two scores to take the lead 27-20 at the end of the third.

Houston scored 14 points in the fourth, the tying TD on an 81-yard pass from Kolb to Vincent Marshall with 22 seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

The teams matched touchdowns in two overtimes and Michael Brewster scored the game-winner on an 8-yard run to leave it up to the Warrior defense which held Houston to four-and-out on the final stand. And then the celebration began.

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Hawaiʻi (8-5)	21	7	17	14	-	59
UAB (7-5)	13	13	7	7	-	40

HONOLULU - Hawai'i outscored Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) 31-14 in the second half to win the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 59-40, Dec. 24 at Aloha Stadium. A crowd of 39,754 filled the stands, the largest in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Quarterback Timmy Chang threw for 405 yards (31-of-46) and four touchdowns, and rushed for another, while slot receiver Chad Owens caught eight passes for 114 yards and two touchdowns, and scored another on a 59-yard punt return, to put an exclamation point on both storied careers. The two were named the game's co-MVPs.

The teams traded scoring and UAB's Nick Hayes added a 36-yard field goal to make it 28-26 at halftime.

The Warriors took control in the second half. Chang threw a 15-yard strike to Owens to put Hawai'i ahead, 35-26. The pass put Chang over the 17,000-yard mark as college football's career passing leader. Four minutes later, Owens took a punt down the near sideline for a 59-yard score, to put the Warriors up 42-26.

Justin Ayat added a 43-yard field goal, but Hackney managed an 80-yard drive and scored on a 4-yard touchdown rush to bring the score to, 45-33, heading into the fourth quarter.

Chang helped put the game out of reach, putting together a 15-play, 85-yard drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown scramble with 9:05 left to play. Hackney hit Lance Rhodes for a 17-yard touchdown to cut the Warrior lead to 12 with 2:05 left in the game, but Britton Komine returned the onside kick 42-yards to the house to end all hopes for the Blazers.

HONOLULU - B.J. Mitchell and Robert Hubbard combined for 304 yards and five touchdowns to help Nevada to a 49-48 overtime win over Central Florida in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Dec. 24, 2005, at Aloha Stadium. Nevada finished with its best season (9-3) since 1996 and spoiled Central Florida's bowl debut.

Wolf Pack quarterback Jeff Rowe scored the go-ahead touchdown on 4-yard naked bootleg in the overtime period. Brett Jaekle added the PAT to give Nevada a seven-point lead. Two plays later, UCF running back Kevin Smith, who finished the game with a Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl record 202 rushing yards and three touchdowns (29 carries), scored on a 19-yard run. But UCF place-kicker Matt Prater missed the tying extra point wide right to give Nevada the victory.

UCF jumped out to a 14-0 lead before Nevada pumped out 21 points in the second quarter to take a 28-20 lead at the half. The Golden Knights reclaimed the lead with two touchdowns in the third quarter, a 29-yard pass from Steven Moffett to Brandon Marshall and a 3-yard run by Kevin Smith.

The Wolf Pack answered with Hubbard's third touchdown of the day, a 5-yard run that capped an 80-yard drive early in the fourth quarter. Rowe hit Travis Branzell for a 7-yard touchdown to give Nevada a 42-32 lead with 3:18 left to play, but UCF ran off 10 points in the next two minutes, including a 16-yard touchdown pass from Meffett to Marshall to tie the game at 42 with 55 second remaining.

The teams combined for 1,178 yards of total offense, a Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl record. Marshall finished with 11 catches for a SHB record 210 yards and three touchdowns, while Roosevelt Cooks led all tacklers with 16.

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Hawaiʻi (11-3)	0	3	21	17	-	41
Arizona State (7	-6) 3	7	0	14	-	24

HONOLULU – The largest crowd in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history (43,435) saw Hawai'i score 38 second-half points to defeat Arizona State, 41-24, Dec. 24 at Aloha Stadium.

Warrior quarterback Colt Brennan threw for a school record and Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl record 559 yards (33 of 42) and five touchdowns, giving him 58 touchdowns passes on the season, a new NCAA record. Jason Rivers tied the school record with 14 catches for a school-record and NCAA bowl game record 308 yards and two touchdowns. Both were named Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl co-Most Valuable Players, along with Arizona State's Ryan Torain who finished the game with 18 carries for 160 yards and one touchdown.

For the first time since opening day, Hawai'i (11-3) did not score a touchdown in the first half, squandering scoring opportunities, a missed field goal in the first quarter, and an interception in the second, allowing Arizona State to take a 10-3 halftime lead.

But the Warriors erupted for 21 points in the third quarter when Brennan threw touchdown strikes to Rivers (38 yards), and two to Ryan Grice-Mullen (7 and 36-yards respectively) to take a 24-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter. Grice-Mullen finished with eight catches for 111 yards and two touchdowns.

Dan Kelly added a 43-yard field goal before Arizona State (7-6) scored 14 straight points to cut the Warrior lead to three, 27-24, with 10:25 left to play.

But Brennan and the Warrior offense were not finished. Brennan found Davone Bess for a 21-yard touchdown to cap an 80-yard drive, and Rivers capped a 95-yard drive with a 79-yard touchdown catchand-run to seal the win.

HONOLULU – Chris Johnson set an NCAA bowl record with 408 all-purpose yards, while Ben Hartman hit a 34-yard field goal as time expired to lead the East Carolina Pirates to an exciting 41-38 victory over No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium, Dec. 23.

Johnson finished the game with 223 yards rushing, 32 yards receiving and 153 yards in kickoff returns, passing the old bowl mark set by Alabama's Sherman Williams (359 yards set against Ohio State in the 1995 Citrus Bowl). Johnson had two touchdowns (one rushing, one receiving) He was named the game's Most Valuable Player, along with Boise State's Jeremy Avery, who rushed for 69 yards with four catches for 43 yards and a touchdown.

East Carolina (8-5) jumped out early in the game as Johnson's 18-yard touchdown reception from Patrick Pinkney gave the Pirates a 24-7 lead with 8:51 left in the second quarter. Boise State (10-3) answered with a 69-yard drive, capped by a three-yard touchdown pass from Taylor Tharp to Ryan Putnam, before ECU capped its big first half with a 3-yard touchdown run by Dominique Lindsay with just 33 seconds left, giving the Pirated a 31-10 halftime lead.

The Pirates added another touchdown to start the third quarter, extending its lead to 38-14, before Boise State mounted a ferocious comeback. A 25-yard touchdown pass from Tharp to Avery and a one-yard D.J. Harper touchdown run that capped an 80-yard BSU drive sandwiched a Kyle Brotzman field goal, pulling the Broncos within a touchdown at 38-31.

Boise State then got a big break as Johnson fumbled late in the fourth quarter, his first fumble of the season, with Marty Tadman returning the miscue for a 47-yard touchdown with just 1:25 left in regulation, tying the game at 38-38.

With a third overtime finish in just six years of the Hawai'i Bowl looking probable, the Pirates drove quickly, using just four plays, highlighted by a 36-yard pass from Rob Kass to Jamar Bryant, to get to the Boise State 17-yard-line. With four seconds on the clock, Hartman knocked the 34-yarder through the goal posts, giving ECU its first bowl victory since 2000 (Galleryfurniture.com Bowl).

HONOLULU – The University of Hawai'i Warrior football concluded its 2008 campaign with a 49-21 loss to Notre Dame in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl Christmas Eve at Aloha Stadium. UH finished the year with a 7-7 record.

Making its sixth bowl appearance in the last seven years, the Warriors could do little to contain the Fighting Irish who finished with a 7-6 mark. The loss ended a string of three straight Hawai'i Bowl wins for the Warriors dating back to 2003.

Jimmy Clausen passed for 401 yards and five touchdowns to end Notre Dame's nine-game bowl losing streak and give the Fighting Irish their first bowl win in 15 years. Clausen completed 22-of-26 passes en route to co-MVP honors.

Clausen shared the MVP award with sophomore receiver Golden Tate his primary target, who hauled in six passes for 177 yards. Tate caught touchdown passes of 69, 18 and 40 yards. The three touchdown receptions tied a Hawai`i Bowl record.

Clausen passed for 302 yards and three touchdowns by halftime as the Irish took a comfortable 28-7 into the locker room

Senior wide receiver Aaron Bain earned bowl MVP honors for Hawai'i after scoring two touchdowns on the day. Bain finished with career highs in receptions (8) and yards (109). Junior quarterback Greg Alexander finished with 23-of-39 for 261 yards for UH. Senior Solomon Elimimian, the school's all-time leader in tackles, led UH with nine stops, including one sack.

Notre Dame got on the board first with 3:07 left in the first quarter when Robert Hughes rushed from 2 yards out to cap a nine-play, 87-yard drive. Notre Dame extended it lead to 14-0 five minutes into the second quarter when Clausen found David Grimes in the corner of the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown.

UH made it a 14-7 game when Bain scored on a 10-yard connection from Alexander midway through the second quarter. It was all Irish after that. Notre Dame answered right back on its next possession with a 69-yard bomb form Clausen to Tate to move its cushion to two touchdowns and begin a string of 28 unanswered points by the Fighting Irish.

Nevada (8-5)	0	0	3	7	-	10
SMU (8-5)	17	14	7	7	-	45

HONOLULU - Freshman Kyle Padron threw for an SMU-record 460 yards, leading the Mustangs to a 45-10 victory over Nevada - SMU's first postseason appearance in 25 years.

It was a triumphant return to the postseason and paradise for the Mustangs and second-year coach June Jones, who left Hawai'i after nine seasons and has revived a dreadful SMU program hit hard by the NCAA death penalty. After going 1-11 the previous two years, the Mustangs (8-5) have their most victories since their last postseason game – also in Hawai'i when SMU beat Notre Dame 27-20 in the 1984 Aloha Bowl to finish 10-2.

The 18-year-old Padron, who was 32 of 41 and completed two touchdown passes, was confident and composed on the biggest stage of his young career. The 12-point underdogs dominated from the opening bell, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter and building a 38-0 advantage by the third.

Padron had 303 yards passing in the first half alone, breaking SMU's bowl record of 281 yards by Chuck Hixson in the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Padron's 17- and 2-yard touchdown passes in second quarter gave SMU a 31-0 lead at the half and had the Wolf Pack searching for answers. The 17-yarder was to Emmanuel Sanders, who had seven catches for 124 yards. Sanders finished his career as SMU's career leader in receptions, touchdown catches and yards.

Shawnbrey McNeal added 63 yards rushing and three touchdowns, including two in the first quarter. He also had seven catches for 53 yards.

While SMU racked up 534 yards of offense, Nevada had held to just 314, including 137 yards rushing. The Wolf Pack averaged 362.3 yards rushing during the regular season and is the first team in NCAA history to have three 1,000-yard rushers. But Nevada was without two of them in running backs Vai Taua and Luke Lippincott.

Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick couldn't get anything going on the ground or through the air. Kaepernick, who rushed for 1,160 yards in the regular season, had just 23 yards rushing on 13 carries and was 15 of 29 for 177 yards passing.

Hawaiʻi (10-4)	0	14	14	7	-	35
Tulsa (10-3)	10	17	21	14	-	62

HONOLULU - Damaris Johnson broke loose for a career-high 326 all-purpose yards to break the NCAA career record and Tulsa took advantage of six first-half turnovers to beat No. 24 Hawai'i 62-35 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

The Golden Hurricane (10-3) grounded the nation's No. 1 passing offense most of the night and broke it open with a 21-point third quarter for their seventh straight win and third consecutive bowl victory.

The short and speedy Johnson earned MVP honors, rushing for 98 yards and a touchdown on five carries and catching four passes for 101 yards and another score. He had two big plays in the decisive third quarter – a 59-yard reception and a 67-yard TD run that put Tulsa up 41-28.

He also had five kickoff returns for 109 yards and an 18-yard punt return. Johnson hauled in Tulsa's final touchdown, a 9-yarder from G.J. Kinne with 1:16 left. Johnson raised his nation-leading all-purpose average from 191.8 to 202.2 yards.

Greg Salas also had a record night for Hawai'i (10-4). The senior had 13 receptions for career-high 214 yards and two touchdowns and set school single-season records in receptions and receiving yards. Hawai'i, 3-3 in its hometown bowl, had 550 yards of offense to Tulsa's 531.

Kinne was 17 of 31 for 343 yards and three second-half touchdowns. He had just 107 yards passing in the first half.

Tulsa entered the game ranked 119th in the nation in pass defense, but used an aggressive pass rush up front and had its linebackers drop back into coverage on the Warriors, who shared the Western Athletic Conference title with Boise State and Nevada.

The Golden Hurricane forced a fumble and intercepted five passes in the first half, including two picks by Curnelius Arnick. Hawai'i's six first-half turnovers led to 24 Tulsa points and gave the Hurricane a 27-14 halftime lead.

On Arnick's second interception, he stepped in front of Bryant Moniz's errant throw and returned it 54 yards along the sideline, leaping for the score to put Tulsa up by 17.

Moniz broke the 5,000-yard passing mark for the season, throwing for 411 yards and three touchdowns. But he had a disastrous first half with four interceptions.

Southern Miss (12	2-2)0	17	0	7	-	24

HONOLULU – Austin Davis made the plays when it counted to send Southern Mississippi coach Larry Fedora out a winner. Davis threw two touchdowns, including a 4-yarder late in the game, and Southern Miss (No. 21 BCS, No. 22 AP) earned a school-record 12th victory by holding off Nevada 24-17 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Davis overcame a shaky game for the Conference USA-champion Golden Eagles (12-2), and the defense in the second half managed to shut down Nevada's potent pistol attack led by Lampford Mark.

Davis was off most of the night but made it count on the gamewinning drive. On third-and-goal, he scrambled right and found Kelvin Bolden for the 4-yard score, capping a seven-play, 68-yard drive. He had just 59 yard passing at halftime and finished 18 of 41 for 165 yards.

On the winning drive, Davis was 3 of 4 for 66 yards, including a 43-yard completion to Dominique Sullivan down the right sideline and a 19-yarder to a crossing William Spight. Sullivan had five catches for 75 yards.

With Davis held in check, the Golden Eagles relied on their defense, stopping Lampford Mark on fourth-and-1 at midfield with 3:56 left. Mark had 183 yards rushing for the Wolf Pack (7-6) but was held to just 21 yards in the second half. Mark's 45-yard run gave the Wolf Pack a 14-7 lead with about 5 minutes left in the half, and Nevada took the ball right back on the ensuing kickoff.

Lorenzo Devers returned the kickoff 61 yards and appeared to be heading for a touchdown. After shedding the kicker, Devers was stripped from behind by Khalid Wooten and Thaddeus Brown returned it 16 yards to the Nevada 36.

Green burst through the middle and leaped in the air, getting his hand on the ball as he flipped over a blocker. Tray Becton-Martin then dropped on the ball in the end zone, giving the Golden Eagles a 7-0 lead.

Nevada answered with a 5-yard touchdown run by Mark, who had a 25-yard scamper to begin the 81-yard drive. Mark had 41 yards rushing on the drive, giving him 112 yards and his sixth-straight game with 100 or more.

Mark burst up the middle for 43 yards and was chased down from behind by Presley, getting Nevada inside the red zone. But Fajardo's pass on third down was tipped and intercepted in the end zone by Jacorius Cotton.

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Fresno State (9-4)	0	0	7	3	-	10
SMU (7-6)	0	22	7	14	-	43

HONOLULU – SMU coach June Jones walked out of Aloha Stadium with another win, thanks largely to a disruptive performance by defensive end Margus Hunt that set the tone for the Mustangs' 43-10 win over Fresno State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Hunt, the 6-foot-8 senior from Estonia with an 82-inch wing span, forced two fumbles that led to field goals and sacked Derek Carr for a safety as SMU (7-6) built a 22-0 halftime lead and never looked back.

The Mustangs also returned two interceptions for touchdowns, giving them eight for the season to tie the NCAA record set last year by Southern Miss. Hayden Greenbauer picked off Carr and returned it 83 yards with 1:14 left, the final blow to a miserable night for the Bulldogs (9-4).

SMU had seven sacks, the most Fresno State has given up all year. Garrett Gilbert was effective with his arm and his legs, running for a 17-yard touchdown for the first score of the game and throwing a perfect strike to Darius Johnson for a 21-yard score to answer the Bulldogs' only touchdown. He rushed for 98 yards on 18 carries and threw for 212 yards.

But this game was decided by the Mustangs' defense, with Hunt leading the way. He was voted the game's MVP.

Fresno State, which had averaged just over 47 points in its last five games, was held scoreless in the first half for the first time in two years, and Carr was too busy running for his life to get the Bulldogs into any kind of offensive rhythm.

The Mustangs were playing in a school-record fourth straight bowl game since ending a 25-year drought dating to its infamous NCAA death penalty. They have won three of those bowl games, twice as big underdogs to explosive offenses – a 45-10 win over Nevada in 2009 and against Fresno State, both in the Hawai'i Bowl.

Hunt, who won the Junior World Championships in Beijing in 2006 in the shot put and discus, came to SMU to work on athletics and earned a scholarship when coaches took one look at him, and saw his 4.7 time in the 40-yard dash. He set an NCAA record this year by blocking his 10th field goal.

His speed made all the difference in his final college game as Hunt zipped around tackles and harassed Carr all night. Carr finished with 362 yards on 33-of-54 passing. The 10 points were the fewest Fresno State has scored since a 20-10 loss to Boise State this year.

The Bulldogs hardly looked like a team averaging 488 yards a game. Carr spent more time on his back than stepping into throws as the Mustangs' defensive front – particularly Hunt – was overwhelming.

HONOLULU – Rashaad Reynolds and Oregon State made the most of their final chance to stop a costly losing streak. Reynolds returned two fumbles for touchdowns, helping the Beavers beat Boise State 38-23 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Biletnikoff Award-winner Brandin Cooks grabbed eight balls for 60 yards and a touchdown. He extended his Pac-12 single-season record to 128 receptions and broke the conference record for yards receiving with 1,730, passing Southern California's Margise Lee.

Sean Mannion threw for 259 yards and a touchdown, giving him a Pac-12-record 4,662 yards passing for the season.

Oregon State kept Boise State (8-5) out of the end zone until the third quarter, well after the Beavers had opened a big lead.

Reynolds had his first fumble recovery about 12 minutes into the game when Scott Crichton stripped Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick in the end zone. The ball popped forward to the 3-yard line, where Reynolds picked it up and ran it in.

Reynolds tacked on another fumble return in the second quarter on his way to game MVP honors. Troy Ware caught a 6-yard pass near the sideline for Boise State, but Larry Scott punched the ball out as Ware was falling to the ground. Reynolds picked it up and ran 70 yards to the end zone.

Matt Miller led Boise State with 11 catches for 206 yards and a touchdown, with most of the production coming after the game was decided. Miller, who set a school record with 88 catches this season, was the Broncos' MVP for the game.

Boise State's most successful drive came in the third quarter after Oregon State went 94 yards and scored a touchdown to make it 38-6. The Broncos responded with a nine-play, 76-yard drive spent partially in a hurry-up offense. Jay Ajayi took a shotgun handoff from Hedrick and ran up the middle for a 1-yard TD.

Oregon State finished with 454 total yards, averaging 6.8 per play. Storm Woods had 16 carries for 108 yards and a touchdown, and Terron Ward had a 9-yard TD run.

Hedrick threw for 382 yards and a touchdown, closing out a difficult stretch for the Broncos (8-5).

Fresno State ((6-8) 3	3	0	0	-	6
Rice (8-5)	16	0	7	7	-	30

HONOLULU -- Two touchdown passes in a span of 19 seconds were all Driphus Jackson needed to give Rice the spark it needed in the Hawai'i Bowl.

The defense took it from there.

Jackson had his best game of the year by passing for 318 yards and three touchdowns, and Rice set a Hawai'i Bowl record by holding Fresno State without a touchdown Wednesday night in a 30-6 victory that completed a remarkable turnaround for the Owls.

Rice senior running back Jayson Carter – all 4 feet, 9 inches of him – had his second career carry for 2 yards. The walk on, who has a genetic disorder that hinders his growth, had worked with the scout team for three years before making his college debut with a 1-run gain in a win against Utah in October 2013.

Even though Rice dominated early, it was tied at 3 early in the first quarter when Jackson was perfect on a fly route to Dennis Parks down the left sideline for a 53-yard gain that led to his 14yard touchdown pass to Jordan Taylor.

Brian Burrell's deep throw was intercepted on Fresno State's next play from scrimmage, and Jackson then slightly underthrew a deep ball to Mario Hull, who came back for the catch and eluded two defenders to complete a 69-yard touchdown.

Fresno State (6-8), the only team with a losing record to play a bowl game this year, broke its Hawai'i Bowl record for fewest points. Fresno State scored 10 points two years ago in a lopsided loss to SMU. It was the fewest points Fresno State scored all season.

The Bulldogs lost to Rice for the first time – they had a 6-0 edge from their old WAC days – and dropped their sixth consecutive bowl game.

Rice piled up 463 yards and held Fresno State to 93 yards passing, well below the Bulldogs' season average of 238 yards. Brian Burrell was 10 of 20 for 44 yards and didn't complete a pass longer than 8 yards.

The Owls were coming off a 76-31 loss to Louisiana Tech in which they gave up 677 yards in a game that decided the West division of Conference USA. They redeemed themselves against the Bulldogs.

HONOLULU – San Diego State fullback Dakota Gordon does a lot more than just block for the Aztecs. He showed it in the Hawai'i Bowl and ended up with the most valuable player award.

Gordon caught a touchdown pass and ran for another score to help San Diego State rout Cincinnati 42-7 at Aloha Stadium.

The Aztecs (11-3) won their final 10 games to match the longest winning streak in school history.

San Diego State rushed for 207 yards, topping the 200-yard mark for the 10th consecutive game, and finished with 336 yards of total offense. Donnell Pumphrey, the Mountain West offensive player of the year, had 99 yards on 25 carries. He threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Gordon and had a 1-yard scoring run early in the fourth quarter. Gordon also had a 1-yard TD run and finished with four catches for 58 yards.

Pumphrey finished the season with 1,653 rushing yards and Chase Price had 1,008 to become the first Aztecs teammates to run for more than 1,000 yards in a season.

Rashaad Penny, the Mountain West special teams player of the year, returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown and broke the Hawai'i Bowl record for the longest return.

Redshirt freshman Christian Chapman went 8 of 11 for 113 yards with one touchdown and did not have an interception in his second straight start in place of starter Maxwell Smith.

The Aztecs led 14-0 after the first quarter, the ninth time this season they held an opponent scoreless in the opening quarter.

Cornerback Damontae Kazee had his eighth interception of the season to set up Pumphrey's 16-yard halfback-option pass to Gordon that made it 21-0 late in the first half.

Defensive lineman Alex Barrett had the third interception of Cincinnati quarterback Hayden Moore in the fourth quarter and returned it 43 yards for a score with 9:04 to play. Moore, a redshirt freshman, went 19 of 30 for 202 yards in his third career start in place of junior Gunner Kiel, who did not make the trip.

The Bearcats (7-6) finally got on the board on Mike Boone's 1-yard run with 3:21 remaining.

It was tied the largest margin of victory in the 14-year history of the Hawai'i Bowl.

Hawai'i	14	21	10	7	-	52
Middle Tennessee	14	7	7	7		35

HONOLULU -- Hawai'i has already come quite a ways in one season under coach Nick Rolovich, and that culminated in snapping a decade-long skid.

Dru Brown threw for 274 yards and four touchdowns and Hawai'i overcame an early deficit to beat Middle Tennessee 52-35 in the Hawai'i Bowl.

The Rainbow Warriors (7-7) amassed 500 yards of total offense and their highest-scoring output this season to end on a three-game winning streak. The Christmas Eve victory marks their first bowl win since 2006, an unlikely end to a season that began with losses in three of the first four games under Rolovich.

Brown completed 20 of 30 passes without an interception. He had a 2-yard touchdown run and was sacked just once.

Tight end Metuisela Unga caught two of Brown's scoring strikes, an 18-yarder in the first quarter for Hawai'i's first score and a 12-yarder late in the third.

Diocemy Saint Juste ran for 170 yards on 25 carries.

Hawai'i turned three Middle Tennessee turnovers into 21 points. It fell behind 14-0 just over 5 minutes into the game, but scored the next 28 points and never relinquished the lead.

Brent Stockstill started at quarterback for the Blue Raiders (8-5) after missing the last three games with a broken collarbone. He finished 30 of 51 passing for 432 yards. Stockstill threw four touchdown passes – two to Richie James – and was intercepted twice.

James caught nine passes for 175 yards. It was his 14th game of 100 or more receiving yards in his career. Middle Tennessee posted 542 yards of total offense.

Hawai'i took a 35-21 lead into halftime.

The Blue Raiders have now lost their last four bowl games. It was their 10th appearance in a bowl game in program history and the sixth in the FBS era. Their last postseason win came in the 2009 New Orleans Bowl, when they defeated Southern Miss 42-32.

The Rainbow Warriors improved to 6-5 overall in bowl games and 4-3 in the Hawai'i Bowl in their first postseason appearance since losing to Tulsa 62-35 in the 2010 Hawai'i Bowl. It is their first bowl win since beating Arizona State 41-24 in the 2006 edition of the Hawai'i Bowl.

HONOLULU -- Marcus McMaryion threw for a career-best 342 yards and Jimmy Camacho made four field goals to help Fresno State beat Houston 33-27 in the Hawai'i Bowl.

The Oregon State-transfer completed 33 of 48 passes to tie the Hawai'i Bowl record for completions set by Hawai'i's Colt Brennan against Arizona State in 2006 and also matched by Fresno State's Derek Carr against SMU in 2012.

The Bulldogs (10-4) had their first 10-win season in five years and completed the biggest turnaround in FBS this season. They went 1-11 last year and became just the second team in FBS history to go from double-digit losses one season to double-digit wins the next.

Camacho attempted six field goals, with makes of 27, 38, 26 and 33 yards, but missed a 56-yarder in the second quarter – which would have been a career long – and had a 24-yard try blocked and returned for a TD in the third quarter. Camacho broke the Hawai'i Bowl record for field goals.

Fresno State finished with 480 yards of total offense to Houston's 341

Defensive tackle Ed Oliver, the first underclassman to win the Outland Trophy, had his first career carry – a 1-yard touchdown run – to cap Houston's (7-5) first scoring drive in the first quarter.

Camacho lined up a 24-yard field goal attempt late in the third quarter, but it was blocked by Houston's Jeremy Winchester and returned 94 yards for a touchdown by Alexander Myres.

The Bulldogs took the lead for good on Camacho's 26-yard FG with 13:57 left to play and stretched the lead to 26-20 with his 33-yarder with six minutes remaining.

Jaron Bryant's 44-yard interception return for a TD off a deflection with 3:49 wrapped up the win. D'Eriq King's pass was batted up in the air by defensive end Robert Stanley and fell into the hands of Bryant, who maneuvered his way along the left sideline for the score.

KeeSean Johnson caught eight passes for 95 yards for Fresno State and went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Steven Dunbar, one of two senior receivers for Houston, had seven receptions for 168 yards.

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{McMaryion}}$ and $\ensuremath{\mathsf{Dunbar}}$ were selected as the game's most valuable players for each team.

HONOLULU — Skip Holtz felt the need to refocus his players after they spent the better part of a week in paradise.

The sixth-year Louisiana Tech coach dressed down his team one night before the bowl game and it certainly appeared to pay off. J'Mar Smith threw a touchdown pass and ran for another score in a big third quarter to lead Louisiana Tech to a 31-14 win over Hawai'i in the SoFi Hawaii Bowl.

The Bulldogs (8-5) rallied from a 7-3 halftime deficit to secure their fifth bowl victory in as many seasons, a program first.

Defensive end Jaylon Ferguson had 2 1/2 sacks to become the NCAA's career leader. He set the record when he dropped Hawai'i quarterback Chevan Cordeiro for a 2-yard loss late in the third quarter. His 45 career sacks broke the previous mark set by Arizona State's Terrell Suggs.

Smith threw for 285 yards on 19-of-31 passing with an interception. He tossed a 58-yard touchdown to Jaqwis Dancy and scored on a 4-yard run that was part of a 21-point third quarter.

Louisiana Tech took the lead for good on Israel Tucker's 5-yard TD run with 10:27 left in the third.

Hawai'i played without wide receiver John Ursua, who leads the nation with 16 touchdown catches. Ursua, sidelined with an undisclosed injury, was ruled out just minutes before the start of the game.

The Bulldogs had a Hawai'i Bowl-record nine sacks, four by Willie Baker. Amik Robertson had two of their three interceptions. It was the most sacks allowed in a game by Hawai'i.

The Rainbow Warriors (8-6) were just 2 of 14 on third down and got penalized 12 times for 140 yards.

Hawai'i is 6-6 in bowl games and 4-4 in the Hawai'i Bowl. While the Rainbow Warriors were denied their second Hawai'i Bowl victory in three seasons, they still improved by five wins from last year's 3-9 record and finished with the program's first winning season since 2010.

The Bulldogs entered with the 28th-best pass defense in the country, allowing just 193.6 yards per game. They held Hawai'i's ninth-ranked passing offense to 168 yards, well below its average of 321.2 yards.

DECEMBER 24, 2019 ALOHA STADIUM (21,582)

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Hawaiʻi (10-5)	14	17	0	7	-	38
BYU (7-6)	7	17	7	3	-	34

HONOLULU – Hawai'i coach Nick Rolovich had this SoFi Hawai'i Bowl all figured out, except for the details.

He told his players there would be times when beating BYU seemed out of reach, but he wanted them to expect to win the game in the fourth quarter. And that's what happened with a 38-34 victory at Aloha Stadium for the Rainbow Warriors' first win over the Cougars since 2001.

Rolovich just couldn't have scripted how it would happen. Hawai'i scored 31 points by halftime against a BYU defense that had given up more than 30 points in a game once this season, on the road against Washington. The Warriors were blanked so badly in the second half they didn't even get into the red zone until their final possession.

And then, Cole McDonald took them 71 yards in three plays, capping off a magnificent Christmas Eve with a 24-yard touchdown pass to Nick Mardner with 1 minute, 17 seconds remaining.

Khoury Bethley grabbed his second interception of the game – and the season – to stop BYU's final chance and give Hawai'i only its sixth 10-win season in school history and the first since 2010.

McDonald finished with 493 yards passing and four touchdowns, taking him over 4,000 yards for the season. He constantly burned the BYU secondary with the deep ball, and he was at his best at the end.

BYU (7-6) took its only lead of the game on a 20-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. The Cougars had a chance to run out the clock until Zach Wilson was hurried and threw incomplete on third-and-2 which gave Hawai'i one final opportunity.

McDonald had an idea about what the defense was trying to do, and he manipulated the safety by looking right before coming back to the left to find Mardner alone for a 38-yard gain down the left sideline. On the next play, he found Mardner on a post and led him perfectly. Those were the only two catches Mardner had for the game.

Rolovich played for Hawai'i in 2001 when it most recently beat BYU, back when both were in the Western Athletic Conference. This was the first time they had met in a bowl game, with Hawai'i (10-5) designated the visiting team on its home field.

Middle Tenn. (8-5) 0	13	3	9	-	25
San Diego St. (7-6) 14	0	3	6	-	23

HONOLULU (AP) — Zeke Rankin kicked four field goals, including a 37-yarder for the go-ahead score with 2:05 left, and Middle Tennessee State beat San Diego State 25-23 in the Hawaii Bowl on Saturday night.

The Blue Raiders (8-5) overcame a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to turn back the Aztecs (7-6) in a game that featured six lead changes.

Rankin converted four of his five field goal attempts to tie the Hawaii Bowl record for field goals. He made kicks from 44, 49, 26 and 37 yards and missed from 42.

San Diego State took a 23-22 lead with 5:43 to play on a 52-yard field goal by Jack Browning, but Middle Tennessee State drove 55 yards in 12 plays, capped by Rankin's 37-yard field goal to put his team ahead for good.

Middle Tennessee State finished with 170 yards of total offense to 364 total yards for San Diego State.

Chase Cunningham was 26-of-43 passing with one interception for 236 yards and two touchdowns. Jaylin Lane finished with 10 receptions for 111 yards and a 16-yard TD grab that put the Blue Raiders back ahead 22-17 with 13:25 left to play.

Lane's touchdown catch came two plays after Jordan Ferguson came down with an interception of a San Diego State pass that was tipped by linebacker Parker Hughes.

The Blue Raiders won despite allowing seven sacks and being held to minus-61 yards rushing. They were just 3 of 17 on third downs.

San Diego State was 4 of 16 on third downs. San Diego State led 14-13 at halftime.
